Hi, my name is Joshua
and I have a wonderful story
that would put you in a good mood and this how it starts.

Me and my dad got into the car to go to the store. I found 10 dollars under my seat. I said, "Is this my birthday present?!"

My dad said, "Yes it is Joshua, just for you my little boy." So I sat back in the car seat. "First up, the laundromat", he said and, "we'll go to the store so we can get food and you can spend your 10 dollars on something good."

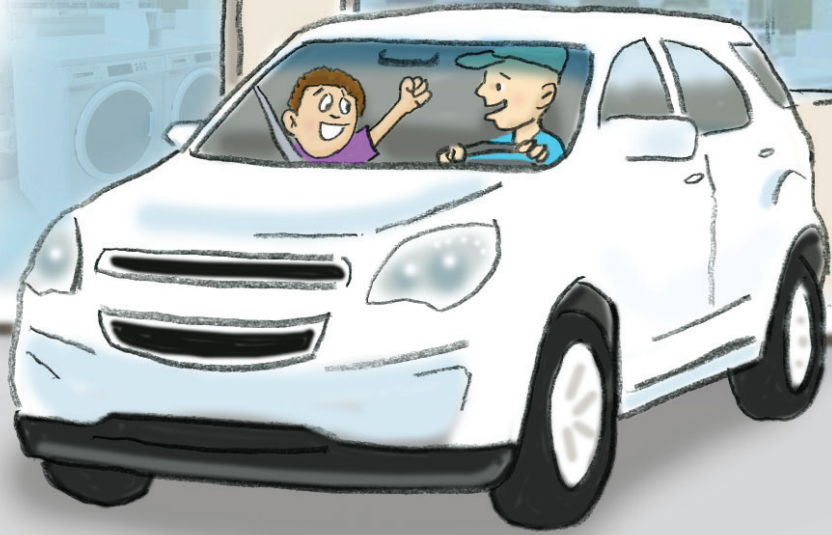

So, we drove off to the laundromat.

I helped my dad put the laundry in the washers and we paid so it can go and then we walked off to the car.

Laundromat

Once we got to the car, I couldn't wait. I was so excited. I put on my seat belt and sat back and my dad said, "Next stop, to the store so we could get fresh fruit and vegetables and some food for today and tomorrow."

"What store are we going to?" I said.

“Giggley Wiggley!”

So we got to the store and on the big building it said Giggley Wiggley. So we went in and my dad said...

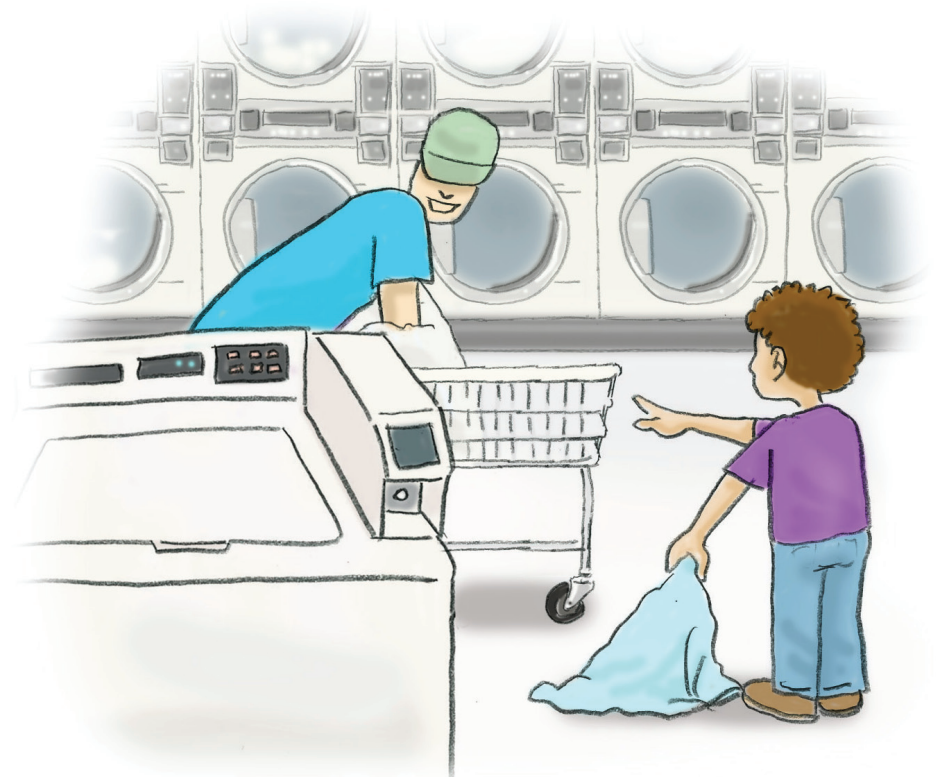

“Do you have the ten dollars with you?”

I checked my pocket and then I had a sad face and said “no”, saying it sadly. So we ran out of the store and drove to the laundromat.

I went to the first washer and there were nothing in it. I checked the second washer and nothing was in it. I checked the third washer and nothing was in it. Fourth, nothing.

Then we checked the last one and there was nothing in it. Then my dad said, "There's nothing in them, I'm sorry." "But I looked" I said, kind of sad.

Then I said, "Check the laundry bin!"

He looked at the laundry bin and there it was. Then he said, "How did this happen?" I said, "While I was putting the clothes in the washer, I accidentally hit the laundry bin and I threw the clothes in the laundry bin and I was probably holding the 10 dollars without knowing it."

The day was saved. I found my 10 dollars and we went back to the store so that I could buy something good.

The End.
